SIGNATURE TOPICS

Indie Publishing 101

Ready to take your story into your own hands? Break down the different types of publishing and learn about costs, essential steps, and useful resources every aspiring author should know. Kaelyn demystifies the jargon, shares lessons she wished she'd learned sooner, and helps you prepare for your own exciting adventure in indie publishing.

Character Craft

What makes a character truly compelling? Dive into the art of crafting unforgettable fantasy characters. Explore practical tools to develop motivations, flaws, and backstories. Then put your skills to the test with an interactive character-building activity. Whether you're a writer, a role-playing gamer, or a certified daydreamer, you'll leave ready to create characters that captivate.

Kaelyn is a fantasy author best known for The Singers Series, a young adult fantasy trilogy that blends her love of music with her passion for storytelling. Born and raised in Alberta, Canada, she still resides there—partly because the cold is a great excuse to stay inside and read. With years of teaching experience, Kaelyn is dedicated to making discussions about writing and publishing accessible, practical, and inspiring. She brings energy, clarity, and a love of story to every workshop or panel she joins. When she's not writing, you can find her practicing piano or playing Dungeons & Dragons with friends.

ABOUT MY PRESENTATIONS

My talks include media presentations and work best with 30-60 minutes of time. Access to a television or projector is ideal, along with a microphone for larger spaces.

I finish each presentation with a short time for Q&A.

I tailor each talk to suit a range of audiences with the goal of making writing feel fun, approachable, and inspiring.

Classroom Visits

I love sharing stories and talking about writing with students. If you'd like me to visit your class in person or online, please get in touch.

Please feel free to reach out for any questions.

TESTIMONIALS

"Kaelyn was clearly well-prepared, funny, informative and offered plenty of opportunities for engagement with the audience. Although I was not familiar with her works, I remember thinking 'if she writes half as well as she presents, it should be a whiz-bang of a book!' "

Gillian Burles

"Really an excellent and engaging speaker."
